"What makes you think I could ever have enough money?"

Letter to Uhlig, 1852

- The Wagner Society of Dallas is devoted to furthering the enjoyment and appreciation of the music of Richard Wagner. The Dallas group is one of many Wagner Societies all over the world. It is a non-profit organization open to anyone who enjoys the works of Wagner and who would like to participate in the Society's activities.
- The Wagner Society of Dallas has monthly meetings and programs which feature recitals, lectures, video screenings, receptions for opera singers and personalities, and trips to Wagner performances in other cities. We welcome music lovers who are already familiar with Wagner's works as well as those who may want to become more knowledgeable about Wagner's music.
- Member Benefits include attendance at programs, advance notice of events and selected ticket services, receipt of the Membership Directory, ticket allotments to Bayreuth, and an active link with fellow Wagnerians throughout the world.
- The Wagner Society of Dallas is a member of the International Association of Wagner Societies.
